Full Prospectus

About:

Kennesaw State University's Bagwell College of Education, School of Art and Design, and Bernard A. Zuckerman Museum of Art support two high-profile Youth Art Galleries on the University campus. The galleries are located in Kennesaw Hall and the Chantal and Tommy Bagwell Education Building. Each location has 30 ready-made frames available to fill on a rotating basis with artwork from prekindergarten to 12th grade students across the state of Georgia.

Our Youth Art Galleries exhibition program serves as inspiration for KSU students, faculty members, and visitors alike. The exhibitions rotate three times a year and are open to any Georgia teacher. Inclusion is determined by KSU stakeholders.

How to apply:

Please email the following to Elizabeth Thomas at ethom142@kennesaw.edu.

- Youth Art Gallery Application Form
- A one-page lesson plan including rationale, objectives, materials, procedures and form of assessment. The lesson plan will become part of the display and must follow the format provided. Where applicable, please provide explanation for instances where the 30 pieces may include multiple lessons.
- A student work sample or the lesson example used for instruction (pdf or jpeg.)

Deadlines:

September 15th for consideration of November displays.

January 15th for consideration of March displays.

May 15th for consideration of July displays.

Exhibition Duration:

November - Feb

March - June

July - October

Artwork and display requirements:

- The artwork must be two-dimensional and fit into a ready-made frame.
  - The artwork cannot exceed 16 x 20 inches maximum (or 20 x 16 inches).
  - Smaller artwork is welcome.
  - Multiples can be clipped together, so the pieces get matted and framed together.
- Kennesaw Hall frames are a landscape orientation (20 x 24 inches) whereas the Bagwell Building frames are portrait style (24 x 20 inches). Please indicate which gallery the submission is for on the Application form.
- The submitting teacher must be prepared to fill all 30 frames of one gallery.
- A teacher may apply for both galleries in one exhibition block, but may only be granted one display at the discretion of the selection committee.
- Teachers selected for display are responsible for transporting work to and from the Zuckerman Museum, %Elizabeth Thomas, Education and Outreach Coordinator, at least two weeks before and two weeks after the display.
- Each artwork must have an individual copy of the Artwork Label Form (sent with the Submission Packet upon acceptance) attached to the back (keep a copy of each of the Label Forms for your records!) Please point the arrow toward the top of the artwork to ensure proper orientation. The Museum and its partners will mat and put the artwork into the frames. Upon its return to the teacher, the artwork will retain the mat.

Teachers selected for display will receive:

- 30 printed invitation note cards for parents and family members.
- Each show will have a free opening reception with light refreshments.
- The reception will be advertised through a digital invitation that is sent to all stakeholders and the teacher for further distribution.
